David Thorp and wife Barbara, are the parents of three children and two grandchildren. He has served the Catholic Church in full-time ministry since 1979 in a variety of positions, including Director of Charismatic Renewal Services and Office for Evangelization, both in the Archdiocese of Boston. He has preached at retreats and conferences throughout the United States and Canada and led short-term mission teams to Eastern and Central Europe in conjunction with Renewal Ministries of Ann Arbor, Michigan. David has served on both the National Service committee of the charismatic Renewal in the US and on the Council of International Charismatic Renewal Services. Currently he is Director of the Archdiocese of Boston's outreach initiative, Catholics Come home.

Sr. Nancy Kellar, S.C. was born in New York City. She has been a sister of Charity of New York since 1960 and has a Masters Degree in History and a secondary school teacher before becoming involved in full time ministry in the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in 1971. In 1975 she was a founding member, with six other Sisters of Charity, of St. Elizabeth Seton House of Prayer in Scarsdale, NY. Sr. Nancy was coordinator of the Charismatic Renewal in the Archdiocese of New York and also was a member of the National Service Committee for the renewal. Her frequent this is:

“There's always more of the gift of God. God did not give a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power and love and self control. “ (2 Tim 1:6-8)
